A weekend Festival to present oeuvres by Polish Musicians living in Ireland and their local and international musician friends in 30 minute gigs each. Unparalleled Chords Festival is an opportunity for everyone to listen to various bands and solo players performing different musical genres; a day to chill out, to meet the musicians and to experience the best of musical intercultural collaborations in Ireland.

The Festival will take place at the Centre for Creative Practices in the centre of Dublin. If the weather allows it the gigs will take place outdoors in the patio area with the space for audiences on the comfy colourful beanbags. Some projections on the walls in the evening will definitely make the evening and the setting one not to be missed.

Feel free to bring your own booze!!
